"NOT FAIR The Bangor Whig and Courier has annexed our Red River to Minnesota. It says —

The local elections at Red River, Minnesota, were quiet, and resulted in the triumph of the Government party in all but two or three parishes. Schultz was defeated in St. John's by Donald A Smith, by a majority of seven "—[St. John Telegraph.

The telegraph is responsible for this arbitrary annexation of which "The Telegraph" complains. Our contemporary may be assured that we Riel-y have no present desire to take that troublesome district off our neighbors' hands

The N Y. Evening Post sums up the result of the recent proceedings of the Methodist Book Committee as follows

The Rev. Doctor Lanahan is reinstated in his office, the charges against him are withdrawn, his own accusations of mismanagement in the Book Concern are ordered to be investigated; and thus this trial ends, honorably to Doctor Lanahan, and creditably to the Methodist Church, whose good fame began to suffer from the foolish attempt of a few men to punish a zealous officer for doing his duty.

THE RAILROAD HEARING. Our Augusta mail failed us last night, and we are consequently without the conclusion of the report of the railroad hearing on the petition of S F. Hersey and others, for a charter for an Aroostook railroad

We learn that Mr. ... opposed the petitioners so far as it granted them exclusive rights in that county, urging that there was not business enough for one road, which they now had from Calais,—(i e the New Brunswick road.) Mr Stickney earnestly favored the petitioners He was followed by Mr Jewett, President of the E & N A Railway, who said he was interested and ready to put his money in quite as much so as Houlton, but if any other charter was granted the petitioners did not want one If it was practical to go to Houlton it would do so Hon Noah Woods and Mr Emery of the E & N A Railway, also presented argument in favor of the petition. Mr Madigan replied for the Houlton parties, asserting that the petitioners had promised much for Aroostook since 1844 but had only laid out one road through a remote township Mr Dudley, Senator made some very humorous remarks, in which he declared that Aroostook people were weary of this charter quarrel and wanted peace He rather favored a general bill

INCREASE OF SOLDIERS' PENSIONS The Senate yesterday passed without a word of debate Mr Edmund s bill to increase pensions and the House will probably do the same The bill will increase the drafts on the pension fund about four millions and a half annually The following is the text

Be it enacted etc, That the pensions of all officers soldiers mariners and sailors of land and naval forces granted or hereafter to be granted by the provisions of the general law and also the same pensions granted by special law not in excess of the rate provided by general law for similar case be and the same are hereby increased by the sum of twenty per centum thereof to commence on the first day of March, 1871

The Louisville Courier Journal, in the following paragraph, makes an open confession of the real difference between the two great political parties of the day It reminds us of the candor of the late Mike Walsh, who said the grogshops were the chief nurseries of Democracy

'The great instrumentality through which Radicalism attains place and power is Mind with a little assistance from Money, the great instrumentality through which Democracy attains the same ends, is Ignorance Wherever Radicalism prevails there Learning lifts her classic head and from her ambrosial locks scatters intellectual light and loveliness abroad wherever Democracy obtains a foothold there ignorance erects her shrines and her altars before which her blind and ragged votaries prostrate themselves in the dust and sing paeans in her praise It is not strange, then, that the Democrat who is true to his principles and his party never approaches a school house without instinctively feeling in his pockets to see if he has such a thing about him as a box of matches or a can of nitro-glycerine. It is to the Democratic party the English poet refers when he tells us that where ignorance is bliss it is folly to be wise

Which of these pictures is most attractive? Every American citizen can take his choice.

The bill providing for a Territorial government for the District of Columbia is receiving serious consideration from many Senators who doubt the constitutionality of the measure The question at issue seems to be whether or not Congress has the power to delegate to another party the rights and duties vested in it by the constitution With regard to the government of the District it is held by some that the constitution is explicit setting forth that Congress shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the territory ten miles square in which the capital shall be located The bill is likely to create considerable discussion in the Senate

THE CONNECTICUT REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION met at Music Hall New Haven at 11 a m., Wednesday with David Gallup temporary Chairman Gen Hawley was chosen President Gen Hawley made an able speech reviewing the platform of the Democratic party at some length and refuting the charges made against the administration The whole State ticket was renominated by acclamation after which Hon Henry B Harrison was asked to address the Convention which he did going over the record of the Republican party The Convention adjourned about 1 o clock

ANOTHER MURDER BY REDDY THE BLACKSMITH Jos Haggerty a notorious character was shot in New York at an early hour Wednesday morning by Wm Varley better known as 'Reddy the Blacksmith, in a saloon on the corner of Broadway and Houston streets The men had a quarrel over some trouble growing out of a previous encounter at Florence s Saloon Haggerty it is said, fired the first shot at Reddy without effect, when the latter returned the fire Haggerty was mortally wounded Varley gave himself up and is now held in custody

AN IMPORTANT RUMOR One of the rumors afloat in Washington, and one which has gained some credit is that the reason of Minister Schenck s delay of his departure for England, is that the English Government has sent instructions for the immediate settlement of the Alabama claims here, and has made, through Minister Thornton, propositions to which our Government is inclined to give favorable consideration

DR SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

Having for the last thirty five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking cold and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter is Florida well down in the State, where the temperature is regular and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes Palatka is a point I can recommend A good hotel is kept there by Peterman Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased but who under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines were getting well

One hundred miles further down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka as the temperature is more even and the air dry and bracing Mellonville and Enterprise are located there I should give a decided preference to Mellonville It is two miles from river or lake and it seems almost impossible to take cold there The tables in Florida might be better and patients complain at times but that is a good sign as it indicates a return of appetite and when this is the case they generally increase in flesh and then the lungs must heal

Jacksonville Hibernia Green Cove and many other places in various parts of Florida can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter My reasons for saying so are that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature and it is not necessary to say that where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds he is certain to die shortly Therefore my advice is go well down into the State out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs Jacksonville or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver a disordered stomach deranged bowels sore throat or cough but for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869 I was professionally in New York Boston Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week A practice so extensive embracing every possible phase of lung disease has enabled me to understand the disease fully and hence my caution in regard to taking cold A person may take vast quantities of Schenck s Pulmonic Syrup Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold

In Florida nearly everybody is using Schenck s Mandrake Pills for the climate is more likely to produce billious habits than more northern latitudes It is a well-established fact that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption especially those of the southern part On the other hand in New England one third at least of the population die of this terrible disease In the Middle States it does not prevail so largely still there are many thousands of cases there What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever small-pox &c but they are not they take what they term a little cold which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days They pay no attention to it and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected even slightly is to lay in a stock of Schenck s Pulmonic Syrup Schenck s Seaweed Tonic and Schenck s Mandrake Pills and go to Florida I recommend these particular medicines because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action I know that where they are used in strict accordance with my directions they will do the work that is required This accomplished nature will do the rest The physician who prescribes for cold cough or night sweats and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long

My plan is to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary My object is to give tone to the stomach—to get up a good appetite It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry I have hopes of such With a relish for food and the gratification of that relish comes good blood and with it more flesh which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs—then the cough loosens and abates the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy and the patient gets well provided he avoids taking cold

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is My advice to such is and ever has been to stay in a warm room during the winter with a temperature of about seventy degrees which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood I have cured thousands by this system and can do so again Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease if it is taken in time and the proper kind of treatment is pursued The fact stands undisputed on record that Schenck s Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption Go where you will you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned everybody should keep a supply of them on hand They act on the liver better than calomel and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhoea ensues a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes and they will relieve you in two hours If you would obviate the effect of a change of water or the too free indulgence in fruit take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water and eat watermelons pears, apples plums, peaches or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you only good

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia every Saturday from 9 A M to 3 P M Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions

In conclusion, I will say that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby they are not so liable to take cold, yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me and can be bought from any druggist J H SCHENCK, M D

The Ambassadors of Austria and North Germany in compliance with instructions from their various governments, inquired of Antonelli what guarantees the Pope would require of the Italian government on the part of the Italian government to remove his dissent to the civil list Foreign authorities Antonelli replied that the order of the Pope he had communicated to the Court of Rome that His Holiness wished no guarantees, but their pure and simple restoration of the territories of the Church and the Neapolitan frontier if the Italian government would accept no arrangement not based on these conditions

His Holiness health is good He occupies himself with writing, visitors A Belgian priest presented him with an offering of Catholics of Belgium and an address—His Holiness replied I thank you for having come to confirm me in these painful circumstances doubtless God our principal support but it is natural that the affection of children should keep up the courage of the Father Continue to do the good work you are doing do not allow yourself to be cast down—what is happening to-day is only a trial of the Church—the church was born in tears and has always lived amidst trials and will lose its career on earth amidst them

THIRD SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Jan 25.

SENATE.

Senator elect Blair of Missouri, took the oath of office He was appointed to fill vacancies on the Com on Pacific Railroad, and education and labor

Mr. Trumbull from the Judiciary Com reported back adversely the bill lately introduced by himself, in reference to Life Insurance Companies

Mr Williams resolution for a special Senate Com on telegraph legislation, was taken up as the business of the morning hour

The morning hour expiring, the resolution went over without action

Mr Sumner forwarded to the Secretary and had read, the credentials of his colleague Mr Wilson re-elected for six years, from March next.

The House bill granting pensions to soldiers and sailors, and widows of the deceased soldiers of the war of 1812, was taken up and read, but a debate arising on the amendment to strike out the requirement upon the pensioners to show their poverty as a condition to receiving a pension The bill was laid aside, and the income tax bill was proceeded with Mr Scott argued to show the legislative, unconstitutional, unjust, and unnecessary character of the tax He said that the Commissioners of Internal Revenue, had been erroneously represented as saying that the income tax cost more to collect it than was realized, while his actual statement was that the cost of collecting the tax exceeded that of any other revenue tax, and the accuracy of the statement was fully attested The Commissioner recently informed him (Scott) that by the repeal, 300 assistant assessors would be dispensed with at once, and the estimated communition of expense would be $2,400 per day The irregularity of the tax was shown in the fact that of the voters of the country not more than one in 65 pay this tax, while in 23 congressional senate districts in the United States, nearly one tenth of the whole amount realized from it was not more than $1,000 After showing the improbability of a deficit, because of the abolition of this source, in view of the millions in the treasury he alluded to the unpopularity of the annual inquisition into the private finances of the people, and the discontent occasioned thereby

Mr Sherman argued upon the impossibility of dispensing with the revenue derived from the tax, without materially effecting the estimate current expenses of the government. He read from tabular statements of the receipts and expenditures of the government The present yield of the tax was about $13,000,000, or one-twenty sixth of the aggregate revenue among ing to $260,000,000,

Pending which the House informally laid aside, and the remainder of the session was occupied by a protracted personal discussion between Messrs Conkling and Fenton, on matters connected with the New York Custom House and Collector Murphy's administration until the Senate adjourned

HOUSE

The Com on appropriations, reported the fortification bill, which appropriates $1,827 000 and was made the special order for Tuesday next. The Senate amendment to the bill declaring the meaning of the act of July 14 1862, to reduce internal taxation, was concurred in and the bill sent to the President

The bill was passed extending to disabled soldiers of the war of 1812, and the Mexican war, the benefits of the National Soldiers Asylum act

Mr Morgan of Ohio, from the Com on Military Affairs, reported back the Senate bill to turn over to the Secretary of Interior, for the disposal by sale after the appraisement by the U S of various military reservations no longer required for military purposes

Mr Brooks of N Y, made an inquiry of Mr Dawes in regard to the meeting of the next Congress on the 4th of March in order to guide him in the introduction of bills and in action on bills. He and the other members were deeply interested in the Tariff Reform, and if the sessions were to close on the 4th of March he proposed to ask the action of the House as soon as the rules would permit him, for a reformation of the Tariff For that purpose and for the information of the country, he desired an answer to his question from the Chairman of the Com on appropriations

Mr Dawes replied that he could only give his private opinion on the subject As the law now stood, it was obvious that there must be a session on the 4th of March He saw no indications that the law would be repealed, much to his own personal regret, and if Congress assembled on the 4th of March, he had no reasonable expectation that it would adjourn before the middle of April or the first of May

The House then went into a Com of the whole on the naval Appropriation bill, which appropriates $4,565,466, and after a discussion whether it was wiser and better to feed than to fight the Indians Messrs Dawes Sargent Beck and others taking the humanitarian side of the argument, and Messrs. Fitch, Cavanagh and others the opposite, the Com rose having disposed of one half the bill and the House adjourned

A San Domingo letter of Jan 11th published in the Evening Post says

The Nantasket has gone to Ponto Plata to overawe and keep in subjection the people of that town who had protested against the recent decree of Baez who now refuses to receive his sales receipts for duties issued in advance for more than 26 cents on the dollar—the balance payable in gold There is a complete reign of terror and a crisis is near at hand Commerce has had a fiasco with Baez, and has gone to Jamaica. It was evidently a quarrel about a division of the plunder We are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the Tennessee with the Commissioners, but the great difficulty will be in getting at the truth, for no one would be allowed to remain here and at liberty, who ventured to say anything against the powers that be, or in opposition to their grand scheme of special action It will be neither convenient nor safe for them to venture outside he walls of the city, at the present time The prisons are crowded with political prisoners, many of whom are in irons Occasionally some of the least dangerous are shipped off to a distant country to make room for others

A BURMAN SENTENCED

NEW MAGAZINES

The opening article in the ATLANTIC for February is a curious history of 'The Origin of Folk lore,' by an anonymous contributor followed by a lengthy poem, and one of T B Aldrich's always charmingly original stories Published by James R Osgood & Co, Boston

HARPER for February, has the opening chapters of a new serial story by the author of "The Dodge Club," entitled 'The American Baron,' which bids fair to sustain the reputation already acquired by that popular author Published by Harper & Bros., New York and sold by D Bugbee & Co

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for February, has the conclusion of those two interesting serials 'Hathaway Strange' and 'Irene, with a thrilling description of the scenes at 'Rome on the Twentieth of September, and best of all, Our Monthly Gossip," which is this month even more attractive and lively than usual J B Lippincott & Co Philadelphia.

The February number of SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY comes to us finely illustrated, and full of curious and interesting reading too curious, perhaps, in some instances to suit that generality of unscientific readers, who will naturally prefer those charming stories from the pens of such writers as Hans Christian Andersen, George MacDonald, and Gail Hamilton, all of whom contribute to this number Scribner & Co., New York

THE LADY'S FRIEND for February, presents a brilliant array of fashionable costumes for this month, with several pages devoted entirely to "Children's Fashions," and a host of embroidery and other patterns, that cannot but be welcome to all the lady patrons of this popular Magazine Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia.

PETERS' MUSICAL MONTHLY for February has been received, containing its usual variety of new music —Published by J L Peters, New York

The Queen's Counsel, representing the Dominion government at St. John, N B, recently offered to release the fishing schooner White Fawn, of Gloucester, Mass, seized for violation of the fishing laws, if the owners would pay a fine of $20 This they refused to do, as it would be an equivalent to an acknowledgment of a violation of the law, whereas the owners claim that the vessel was seized without any offence having been committed The sch still remains in the hands of the authorities at St. John.

"AMONG THE ADIRONDACKS" Rev W H H Murray who lectures in Norombega Hall this evening, is the popular pastor of Park St Church in Boston, and, as his books and lectures indicate, is a thorough believer in the doctrine of 'Muscular Christianity" Several years since, instead of spending his summer vacation at a so-called 'fashionable resort," he plunged deep into the forests of the Adirondack Mountains, where in hunting, fishing and like woodland occupations and enjoyments he remained until his duties called him back to his pastorate. Soon after he wrote a book entitled 'Among the Adirondacks' in which he related his adventures during the season, extolling the beauty of the scenery, the charms of a life in the woods, etc The book had a great sale, was read by thousands, and the before—unknown region of which he wrote, has become world famed, Sportemen, invalids—in fact every class coming under the general name of "summer travel," flocked to the Adirondacks Some claim that in Mr Murray's book, "the half was not told;' others deny that the features of the region were truthfully depicted, and accuse the reverend gentleman of exaggeration. A lively controversy thus sprung up of which the end is not yet. Mr Murray has condensed the best parts of his book into a lecture, in which he also arraigns his detractors. If we may judge by the reports of the press, the lecture is sharp, piquant, witty and interesting

BY HESTER A BENEDICT

Good night dear friend! I say good night to thee
Across the moonbeams, tremulous and white
Bridging all space between us It may be
I may — sweet friend! It is the last good night,

For lying mute upon my couch and still,
The fever flush evanished from my face,
I — the wh sper softly, 'Tis His will,
Angels will give her happier resting place!"

— from sight of tears that fall like rain,
— of a sobbing smothered close and low
I turned my white face to the window pane,
— say Good night to thee before I go

Good night good night! I do not fear the end,
The conflict with the billows dark and high
— yet If I could touch thy hand my friend
I think I would be easier to die

If I could I float through all the quiet waves
Of my deep hair thy tender breath athrill
I could go downward to the place of graves
With eyes ashine and pale lips smiling still

It may be that if through all the strife
And pain of parting I should hear thy call
I would come singing back to sweet, sweet life
And know no mystery of death at all

It may be the Good night dear friend good night!
— when — see thee — this again
— through boughs with swollen buds
— gentle falling of the April rain

Remember her whose young life held thy name
With all things holy in its outward light
— turn sometimes from busy haunts of men
— hear again her low Good-night good night!

THE HASBROUCK WILL CASE, on trial in the Supreme Court of New York, is a very curious one Mrs Hasbrouck, finding that by the will of her late husband, Dr Hasbrouck of Rockland County she was left penniless, began proceedings to obtain her dower To her surprise she found that her claim was contested on the ground that she had been divorced from her late husband in 1860—five years ago—and therefore had no claim upon the estate In vain did she assert that she never heard of the alleged divorce, and that she had always lived in the firm belief that she was a lawful wedded wife, that she never was served with a summons at all, and afterwards she lived with her husband as wife always supposing herself his wife, treated as his wife, and nursing him in his last sickness, and that she is his widow, and entitled to all the lawful rights of a widow—Her opponents insisted that she had been divorced that they have strong confirmatory testimony of the service, that she knew of the divorce, that the parties lived in the same house but separate apartments, that the reason for this was that her husband desired to shield her and their son from shame, and that the fact of Dr Hasbrouck's having forgotten to mention so trivial a matter was of no consequence The decision was reserved.
